Dear George:

WOW! That pretty much sums up the reaction of our Conference attendees at the end your presentation. Drury Hotels has had a number of Keynote speakers over the years and, each year we strive to exceed the expectations of our attendees while providing them with relevant, useful tools to help them be more effective on the job. Afterburner Seminars, and you and Mike in particular, did an outstanding job – thanks to you, we achieved our goal!

Your presentation was a unique experience that I know every attendee will remember for quite some time. Your knowledge of our industry and your knowledge of Drury Hotels helped make the presentation relevant and real. You related the material to the day-in-day-out activities of our Management Team and the issues they deal with.

Again, thank you for being such an integral part of our annual Management Conference. You're going to make it difficult to "raise the bar" next year.

Regards,

Chuck Drury
President
